ARTICLE APPEARED ON PAGE

NEW YORK TIMES 10 JULY 1980

The Region

U.S. to Drop Suit Against SS Man

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, July 9 - The Justice tions when he applied for a visa at the Department moved today to dismiss a United States Embassy in Amman, Jorlawsuit that it filed last December to re- dan, in 1952. voke the citizenship of a Paterson, N.J., man who has admitted having had an af- located a copy of the document in its files. filiation with the Waffen SS, the military Allan A. Ryan Jr., director of the Justice arm of Hitler's elite guard.

The department charged originally that when Tscherin Soobzokov entered the United States in 1955, he concealed from immigration authorities the fact dence. that he had been a member of the Waffen SS and of the German Army's North Caucasian Legion during World War II.

in March a copy of a document showing such organizations.

The Central Intelligence Agency later Department's Office of Special Investigations, said that the C.I.A. had not informed him of the document when he and his colleagues were preparing the case and trying to locate all available evi-

Under Federal law, Mr. Ryan said, a person cannot be stripped of his citizenship merely for membership in Nazi Justice Department officials said groups, but citizenshp can be revoked if today that Mr. Soobzokov had given them the person concealed his membership in

(As Received)